Wimberley Lion Club Meeting May 5

Lion Larry Williams started our Cinco de Mayo meeting doing double duty of providing the invocation and leading the pledge of allegiance. PDG Dave Lewis was the mystery song leader. He had little success with his first request for number 16 from the song book, The Mexican National Anthem. He had much better success with America the Beautiful.

Lion Nathan Dean twisted our tails by having four Lions: Lane Hartsock, John Estep, Nick Edwards, and Dave Slider. Each were ask to tell information they knew about another of the four Lions. Each did an admirable job but a couple were running out of knowledge steam before 30 seconds.

Katherine Ann Porter School was the spotlight for Teacher and Student of the Year. The teacher was Daniel Mainwaring. According to KAPS Principal, Denise Unger, he brings both the study of history and government alive to the students. Rebecca (Jack) Reagan, the student of the month, is familiar to many Lions. She works all over Lions Field on Market Day. She is graduating from high school in three years along with taking courses at ACC.

The program was by the Emily Ann Theater. The players performed a song and dance medley reminiscent of the "Up with People" performances for us old people. This was followed by excerpt from their summer show of "My Fair Lady". Let me just say, I know Carol and I will be seeing the show.

Lion Boss introduced the Lions Nominated for Lion of the Year. They are Lions John Stark, John Lyon, and Scott Brown. A handout was provided and the blog list some of their accomplishments.

First VP Lane Hartsock presented the Spring Donation Budget. With the opportunity to purchase a new Bar-B-Que cooker, the need to expand the cooker area to accommodate it, and the refurbishing of unleased vendor booths reduced the availability of donations budget. With request for $29,600, the committee recommended taking $7,000 from reserves to meet minimum needs. This amount was approved by the board and then the membership.

Lion Jim Walker, Golf Tournament Chair, asked for golfers for this fun outing. He also asked for individuals or companies to sponsor a hole for $100. The Wimberley Lions Club already sponsors 10 holes each year which exceeds other clubs by far.
